FEELING GOOD IS WHAT IS MOST NATURAL TO YOU ... “you have this natural barometer inside of you that is always helping you reach for an improved feeling. You will not be misguided by paying attention to the way you feel and reaching for the feelings that feel best”... Excerpted from the Abraham workshop in San Rafael, CA on Saturday, February 21st, 2004

Leanne Synan facilitates a variety of workshops and as her journey continues she has amassed understandings and guidance from many sources and purposefully applies her knowledge into her own personal and business life. She shares her experiences with love, fun and a deep sense of allowing others their space and freedom to choose what is right for them! www.angelicinterlude.com
